

Virtual art tour in aid of NHS

Ted Coney is selling a virtual video tour of his original paintings for just 99p in a bid to raise money for the NHS amid the coronavirus pandemic.

Picture: SUBMITTED

An Ely artist is selling a virtual video tour of some of his original paintings for less than £1 in a bid to raise money for the NHS during the coronavirus pandemic.

Ted Coney is offering a nine-minute in-depth video, showing off his family portraits on the theme of 'Simultaneity', for just 99p on his website. He was scheduled to open a pop-up gallery on Waterside in the city for the twelfth season, but plans were cancelled due to the COVID-19 outbreak.

Mr Coney said: "I was expecting to take my 1931 Morris Minor to the V.E. celebrations on Jubilee Gardens next week, until it was cancelled because of the pandemic. I was also hoping to open my pop-up gallery, Ted Coneys Family Portraits, on Waterside but this has also been postponed for the same reason."

Visit: www.tedconeyfamilyportraits.co.uk/virtualpay