Coney's paintings, which have been created over the past 40 years.

Mr Coney, who used to be head of art at Hills Road Sixth-Form College in Cambridge, is billing it as the "first" pop-up gallery to be held in the city.

Tours of the gallery will be held, as usual, at his 100-year-old cottage in Waterside, Ely, which he shares with wife, Hazel.

He said: "It's a pop-up gallery because when all the signs are down, it reverts back to being a private house."

Ted Coney's Family Portraits has tours starting at 2pm and 3pm on Sundays, and other times by appointment. For more information, call (01353) 650038 or visit www.tedconeyfamilyportraits.co.uk
